Adult Video Network Expo. While there seemed to be less booths this year, the AVN Expo at the Sands on January 7th-10th was a lot more fun. There were some great new exhibits and attractions such as the exotic dancers, the Slick Chick wrestling matches and riders on the bucking mechanical 7-foot penis. There were many new adult products at the Business-2-Business Expo held in conjunction with the AVN. All the latest in sex toys was on display. Porn stars posed in the main area, autographing their photos for the fans. One of our favorite "adult" members, Tera Patrick, was there for a book signing of her new book, "Sinner Takes All". The Sin City Chamber booth was a great place to stop and say "Hi" to the friendly girls from the Chicken Ranch, Jade, Angel and Heather. When not staring at the girls, attendees drooled over the BMW 306 Motorcycle on display. Can you blame them?

Business Office and Meeting Source Mixer and Mini-Expo.

On February 9th members of the Sin City Chamber braved the rain and road closure directions to attend the mixer and mini-expo at BOAMS. BOAMS was perfect for a mini-mixer and if any one is ever in need of office space or meeting space the BOAMS is a great resource. Our hosts, Michael & Susan Jimenez provided the attendees with wonderful food from La Salsa. Lucky winners of the raffle received free tickets to Steve Dacri's new show In Your Face-Up Close Magic at the Shimmer Cabaret in the Las Vegas Hilton. 75 DVDs were collected to be sent to Iraq. Thanks to all who donated the DVDs. We are sure the men and women in our armed services who receive them will be appreciative, too.

NETWORKING HINT

Networking at Sin City Chamber mixers is easy. Just pay attention to the information below:

The Sin City Chamber puts gift bags on a table and everyone is welcome to put in any information pertaining to their business.

For example, business cards, flyers, brochures and even samples.

Each guest is can take home a gift bag when they leave.

This way if you don't get to speak to everyone at the event, you have a business card to follow up with on the next working day.

So remember to bring at least 75 – 100 business cards to each Sin City Chamber Mixer.

AND DON'T FORGET TO RSVP SO THAT OUR HOST VENUES CAN PLAN ACCORDINGLY

If you would like more information on the services available from our host members, please feel free to contact them:

Networking Mixer at the Power Exchange Club.

The networking mixer at the Power Exchange Club on March 18th was a fascinating and uniquely different glimpse into an adult lifestyle. With an open bar and sandwiches, the attendees enjoyed the hospitality of our hosts, Club Mangers, Tara and Dimas Suarez. The Power Exchange is open Thursday thru Sunday, 9pm to 5 am, with a comedy club theme on Friday nights. Our next issue of the Sin City Vision Newsletter will include an in depth article about adult lifestyles and the role of the Power Exchange in accommodating these lifestyles.

HELPFUL HINTS TO KEEP YOUR BUSINESS GOING IN HARD TIMES

This, the so-called great “recession” has had a negative impact on many business in the state of Nevada and in Las Vegas specifically. Everyone is cutting back and/or cutting out just to keep afloat and survive until the economy starts to improve. The following are some simple suggestions that may help you to survive this economic crisis:

1. Inventory. Cut your inventory to the bare minimum. Wait for special sales and promotions when purchasing inventory. Suppliers do have sales. Learn when to take advantage of them.
2. Equipment. Use it or lose it. Look around you. Do you have too many computers, fax machines, or whatever it is that you use on a daily basis? Get rid of the extras. Sell what you don't need and bank the cash to increase cash flow.
 1. Rent/Lease. There are many deals to be had out there for cheaper rent. You may not even have to move if your landlord is willing to reduce your rent during these trying times. If you are a landlord and are losing renters, approach your renters first. It is better to have a renter paying less than nothing at all.
 2. Staff. Unfortunately, when it comes to cutting back or cutting out this may mean loss of employees. Instead of laying-off employees and adding to the unemployment roles, see if you can expand the job position to include extra duties for increased production. Do not hire if someone else on the payroll can also do the job. However, should you need to let someone go, don't let your service or productivity suffer because when times get tough, the competition gets tougher and your customers and clients will go elsewhere.
 3. Customer Service. Now is the time to practice what is preached about customer service. Contact business clients just to find out how they're doing. Don't even mention “sales” just let them know you are still there for them if they should need you.
 4. Spruce Up. Take time to put your business affairs in order. Clean up the files. Throw out the trash. Paint and renew. It will make you feel more productive, too.
 5. Diversify. Now is the time to try some new ideas out, take on extra projects or come up with new products or services to be included in the business.
 6. Training. Downtime can be the perfect opportunity get that needed training that you and/or your employees didn't have time for when you were too busy during the boom.
 7. Network. Now is NOT the time to sit home and wait for business to improve. Get out there and get the word out that you are in still in business and couldn't be better. Try to make new contacts and be sure to follow up when you do.
 8. Prepare. Prepare for the next “boom”. What if it were to start next month. Are you ready?

Chicken Ranch Brothel Initiates On-Line Charitable Program for the Disabled

In an effort to advance the cause and expand the ability of disabled people to experience and enjoy the same opportunities for intimacy and sexual experiences as those who are not handicapped, the world famous Chicken Ranch brothel has initiated an online charitable program for the months of March and April to raise funds to aid the work of The Asta Philpot (AP) Foundation, a nonprofit organization dedicated to helping individuals with disabilities. Monies generated for the AP Foundation will be coming from purchases made by visitors online at the Chicken Ranch website : chickenranchbrothel.com.

Items will be donated for this program by the working ladies and by sale the souvenir merchandise of the brothel.

Additional funds will also be raised through a special auction which will be held during the annual BBQ & Golf Tournament of the Sin City Chamber of Commerce which will be held on May 15 at the Chicken Ranch. Commenting on the charitable program, the brothel manger, Debbie Rivenbaugh remarked: "Throughout the 166-year history of the Chicken Ranch, we have always made it a high priority to accommodate the needs of the handicapped and ensure that they have every opportunity to engage in their sexual expression and satisfaction as those who are not disabled. This program to financially aid the AP Foundation is a way to expand the scope of our support to the handicapped. We encourage the public to visit our website and contribute to this wonderful cause.

Rivenburgh added that a special incentive is being offered for people to purchase goods online during March and April. She reported that anyone who makes a purchase of $25 or more will be automatically registered in a drawing for a free trip for two to Las Vegas on the weekend of the Sin City BBQ (May 15-16). The trip will include two round trip airfares, two nights of lodging, a $250 certificate for purchases at the brothel and two tickets to both the BBQ and the golf tournament. The AP Foundation, which is based in Southern California, was formed to empower persons with disabilities with confidence, providing them the spirit to have a full life without barriers and to instill in them the art of living life and being happy. It seeks to raise awareness with the general public regarding the needs of disabled people, including those related to intimacy and healthy sexuality. It strives to support individuals with disabilities in their quest for sexual experiences.

The AP Foundation was named after Asta Philpot, who was born in Miami, FL and now resides in Leeds, England. Philpot, was born with a condition known as Arthrogryposis which results in the lack of the normal range of motion in one or more joints. While severely handicapped, he has overcome numerous obstacles in life and now is an actor, singer, motivational speaker, film editor and an expert in informational technology (IT)

In reference to the special fund raising program, Philpot commented: "I'm so grateful that the Chicken Ranch is supporting the work of The Asta Philpot Foundation in recognizing and meeting the needs of the disabled. I believe in safe and healthy sexual expression for all, whether you're handicapped or able bodied, and the Chicken Ranch is certainly helping people to do this."

More information on the fund raising program for the AP Foundation can be obtained through the Chicken Ranch website, by contacting the brothel by telephone at (702) 382-7870 or through e-mail at manager@chickenranchbrothel.com.

The Gift Of Happiness

by Jinendra

ONCE upon a time there were four brothers who ruled the four corners of the world. They decided to come together to celebrate. But only three of them made it on time. While enjoying food and drink, they were visited by a fairy who wished to give them each a gift. The fairy said to the brothers, "You may each choose from Wealth, Beauty, Intelligence and Happiness". As per their choices, the fairy bestowed Beauty on one, on another Wealth and Intelligence on the third. Just then, Jinendra walked in and beseeched the fairy to favor him too. 'Very well', said the fairy, 'I have only one gift left and this I give to you'. So on Jinendra she bestowed the gift of Happiness!

Jinendra soon discovered that the Gift of Happiness also brought along with it love, inner beauty, wisdom and wealth. The other brothers, caught up in the daily grind of life and in the whirlpool of human strivings, did not find Love and Happiness despite their gifts of Wealth, Beauty and Intelligence.

By being Happy, Jinendra found that Love is not limited to a bond between two individuals. Neither is it limited to the family circle. Love is beyond desires and mere physical pleasure. Love is realization of faith; it is the bond of harmony and happiness, a world of blessings and bliss. The only condition for L.O.V.E. is Living with Others with Vanquished Ego (and that is, unconditionally). When we start giving and stop taking we begin to enjoy the unfathomable depth and unifying force of love.

Soon the other 3 brothers also realized that, indeed, happiness is a very special gift! When we look around we see some people with everything in life that should make them happy - health, wealth, comfort, physical and mental wellbeing- and yet they manage to contrive to be unhappy.

Then there are others bowed down with care, poverty, hunger, family problems, sickness, debt and all its attendant worries - and yet they seem to find the courage to smile. They literally have nothing but the spirit of happiness to sustain them.

Happiness cannot be defined since it means different things to different people; for some an assembly of positive factors are essential; for others the fulfillment of desires; for still others the expression of creative talents or physical prowess; to a great many happiness means just small successes and general contentment. Happiness also means helping others in the small things of life: a push up the ladder to someone who needs it; a word of appreciation, a sympathetic ear - something so easy to give but so hard to find; and most of all a smile and a cheerful greeting or encouragement.

Open your heart and let the Divine Light in. Begin each day with an "I am feeling Happy" thought. Happiness is not simply a positive striving for an elegant sufficiency, but also an acceptance of unavoidable misfortunes: giving a little of oneself to others, gratitude for the good things and good people in life and most of all, the ability to laugh at oneself.

So, be happy!

Jinendra , the Messenger of Sustainable Happiness

While not a political action group, the Sin City Chamber would like to promote awareness of the issues that are important to both businesses and individuals. The Health Care Reform Bill affects both. Please read the following overview from the bill.

Overview of the Health Care Reform Bill.

Congressional Democrats released a final 2700 page version of President Barack Obama's health care overhaul bill in advance of passage Sunday by the House. Some features of the legislation, which makes changes to the bill the Senate passed on Christmas Eve are:

COST: $940 billion over 10 years, according to the Congressional Budget Office.

HOW MANY COVERED: 32 million uninsured. Major coverage expansion begins in 2014. When fully phased in, 95 percent of eligible Americans would have coverage, compared with 83 percent today.

INSURANCE MANDATE: Almost everyone is required to be insured or else pay a fine. There is an exemption for low-income people. Mandate takes effect in 2014.

INSURANCE MARKET REFORMS: Starting this year, insurers would be forbidden from placing lifetime dollar limits on policies, from denying coverage to children because of pre-existing conditions, and from canceling policies because someone gets sick. Parents would be able to keep older kids on their coverage up to age 26. A new high-risk pool would offer coverage to uninsured people with medical problems until 2014, when the coverage expansion goes into high gear. Major consumer safeguards would also take effect in 2014. Insurers would be prohibited from denying coverage to people with medical problems or charging them more. Insurers could not charge women more.

MEDICAID: Expands the federal-state Medicaid insurance program for the poor to cover people with incomes up to 133 percent of the federal poverty level, $29,327 a year for a family of four. Childless adults would be covered for the first time, starting in 2014. The federal government would pay 100 percent of costs for covering newly eligible individuals through 2016. A special deal that would have given Nebraska 100 percent federal financing for newly eligible Medicaid recipients in perpetuity is eliminated. A different, one-time deal negotiated by Democratic Sen. Mary Landrieu for her state Louisiana, worth as much as 300 Million remains.

TAXES: Dramatically scales back a Senate-passed tax on high-cost insurance plans that was opposed by House Democrats and labor unions. The tax would be delayed until 2018, and the thresholds at which it is imposed would be $10,200 for individuals and $27,500 for families. To make up for the lost revenue, the bill applies an increased Medicare payroll tax to Laugh & the World Laughs With You...

THE FACTS OF LIFE

A little boy goes to his father and asks 'Daddy, how was I born?'

The father answers, 'Well, son, I guess one day you will find out anyway! So here goes...'

Your Mom and I first got together in a chat room on Yahoo. Then I set up a date via e-mail with your Mom and we met at a cyber-cafe. We sneaked into a secluded room and googled each other. There your mother agreed to a download from my hard drive. As soon as I was ready to upload, we discovered that neither one of us had used a firewall, and since it was too late to hit the delete button, nine months later a little Pop-Up appeared that said:

“YOU’VE GOT MALE”

Worth Thinking About...

‘I have wondered at times about what the Ten Commandments would have looked like if Moses has run them through the U.S. Congress.’

-Ronald Reagan

the investment income and to the wages of individuals making more than $200,000, or married couples above $250,000. The tax of investment income would be 3.8 percent.

PRESCRIPTION DRUGS: Gradually closes the "doughnut hole" coverage gap in the Medicare prescription drug benefit that seniors fall into once they have spent $2,830. Seniors who hit the gap this year will receive a $250 rebate. Beginning in 2011, seniors in the gap receive a discount on brand name drugs, initially 50 percent off. When the gap is completely eliminated in 2020, seniors will still be responsible for 25 percent of the cost of their medications until Medicare's catastrophic coverage kicks in.

EMPLOYER RESPONSIBILITY: As in the Senate bill, businesses are not required to offer coverage. Instead, employers are hit with a fee if the government subsidizes their workers' coverage. The $2,000 per employee fee would be assessed on the company's entire work force, minus an allowance. Companies with 50 or fewer workers are exempt from the requirement. Part-time workers are included in the calculations, counting two part-timers as one full-time worker.

SUBSIDIES: The proposal provides more generous tax credits for purchasing insurance than the original Senate bill did. The aid is available on a sliding scale for households making up to four times the federal poverty level, $88,200 for a family of four. Premiums for a family of four making $44,000 would be capped at around 6 percent of income.

HOW YOU CHOOSE YOUR HEALTH INSURANCE: Small businesses, the self-employed and the uninsured could pick a plan offered through new state-based purchasing pools called exchanges, opening for business in 2014. The exchanges would offer the same kind of purchasing power that employees of big companies benefit from. People working for medium-to-large firms would not see major changes. But if they lose their jobs or strike out on their own, they may be eligible for subsidized coverage through the exchange.

GOVERNMENT-RUN PLAN: No government-run insurance plan. People purchasing coverage through the new insurance exchanges would have the option of signing up for the national plans overseen by the federal office that manages the health plans available to members of Congress. Those plans would be private but one would have to be nonprofit.

ABORTION: The proposal keeps the abortion provision in the Senate bill. Abortion opponents disagree on whether restrictions on taxpayer funding go far enough. The bill tries to maintain a strict separation between taxpayer dollars and private premiums that would pay for abortion coverage. No health plan would be required to offer coverage for abortion. In plans that do cover abortion, policyholders would have to pay for it separately, and that money would have to be kept in a separate account from taxpayer money. States could ban abortion coverage in plans offered through the exchange. Exceptions would be made for cases of rape, incest and danger to the life of the mother.

THE ABOVE INFORMATION IS JUST A BRIEF SYNOPSIS THAT ADDRESSES THE MAIN ISSUES OF THE 2700 PAGE HEALTH CARE REFORM BILL RECENTLY PASSED AND ANSWERS SOME THE QUESTIONS THAT ARE OF MOST CONCERN TO INDIVIDUALS AND BUSINESSES.

BREAKING NEWS:

— The world’s first-ever outdoor adult consumer event, XFANZ Summer Expo, will make its grand debut June 10-11 poolside at the world famous Hard Rock Hotel & Casino in Las Vegas. The premier event gives fans face-to-face time with their favorite stars.

XFANZ is now accepting nominations for the Miss Summer 2010 Pageant to be held June 10, to kick off the world’s first-ever poolside adult consumer event, XFANZ Summer Expo. The finalists will compete for the crown, poolside, in front of a panel of special guest celebrity judges.

XFANZ is putting the power into the hands of industry members and fans by allowing them to “rock the vote” on XFANZExpo.com to nominate their favorite stars into the pageant. Candidates are encouraged to tap into the power of social media to point fans to XFANZExpo.com, where their potential entry into the Miss XFANZ Summer Pageant is just a click away.

“Reigning Miss XFANZ Summer Ashley Fires earned her title with an impressive fire dance — I can’t wait to see what talents this year’s finalists will use to wow their thousands of supportive fans,” XBIZ Associate Publisher Kristen Kaye said. “The first-ever Miss XFANZ Summer Pageant will welcome event attendees with a big bang!”

The pageant will consist of three parts-bikini, talent and Q&A . — and the winner will be chosen both by a panel of special guest celebrity judges and a measure of crowd applause. The winner will be the face of the official XFANZ Summer Expo 2011 ad campaign and grace the pages of XBIZ magazines, other industry publications and countless consumer-oriented publications and websites around the globe.

For more information and to nominate your favorite, visit XFANZExpo.com.
